SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

In memoriam: Brigadier General James Burdette Thayer, 1922-2018.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2       Whereas Brigadier General James Burdette Thayer was born on March 10, 1922, in Portland, 3 Oregon; and

4       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer was raised by his grandparents on their family farm in rural 5 Oregon, and he graduated from Carlton High School in 1940; and

6       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer attended the University of Oregon on a journalism scholar-7 ship, but he answered his nation's call by enlisting in the United States Army in the aftermath of 8 the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor; and

9       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer was selected for Officer Candidate School shortly after 10 enlistment, and he was commissioned a second lieutenant and subsequently assigned to combat duty 11 with the 71st Infantry Division, which was then operating in Normandy, France; and

12       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer, as a mine platoon commander, exemplified the core values 13 of the United States Army while leading his platoon across France and training his soldiers in the 14 methodology of clearing pathways and securing anti-personnel mines in areas near the Maginot 15 Line; and

16       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer was then reassigned to command of a reconnaissance 17 platoon, which he successfully led on many missions, one of which was a battle in a small Austrian 18 town against a much larger enemy force, which resulted in the surrender of more than 800 German 19 troops; and

20       Whereas on May 4, 1945, during a reconnaissance mission, Brigadier General Thayer and his 21 platoon discovered and liberated the Gunskirchen Lager concentration camp, saving the lives of 22 approximately 15,000 prisoners; and

23       Whereas for his heroic and selfless service in World War II, Brigadier General Thayer earned 24 numerous medals and commendations, including the Silver Star and the Bronze Star; and

25       Whereas after the war, Brigadier General Thayer returned to the University of Oregon and 26 graduated with a degree in economics in 1947; and

27       Whereas in 1954 Brigadier General Thayer married Patricia Cunningham and together they 28 raised five children: James Jr., Anne, John, Tommy and Mike; and

29       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer had a long and illustrious career in business and as a civic 30 leader, and his countless leadership roles included serving as president of the Oregon Historical 31 Society, president of the Beaverton Chamber of Commerce, president of the Port of Portland and 32 interim president of Tuality Community Hospital; and

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.

1       Whereas despite his very active and successful civilian life, Brigadier General Thayer remained
2 in military service after World War II in the United States Army Reserve, retiring with the rank 3 of colonel in 1982; and

4       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer continued his service to the nation as Oregon's civilian aide
5 to the Secretary of the Army from 1989 to 1994, for which he was awarded the Secretary of Defense
6 Medal for Outstanding Public Service; and

7       Whereas in 2000 Brigadier General Thayer was reactivated into military service as commander 8 of the Oregon State Defense Force, and was promoted to brigadier general; and

9       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer modernized the Oregon State Defense Force, providing the 10 State of Oregon with enhanced capacities for emergency preparedness, mitigation, response and re-11 covery operations; and

12       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer was a coach, mentor and teacher to generations of Oregon 13 National Guard troops, who recognized his humility, intelligence, leadership and patriotism; and

14       Whereas in 1991 Brigadier General Thayer was inducted into the Infantry Hall of Fame at Fort 15 Benning, Georgia; and

16       Whereas in 1996 Brigadier General Thayer was awarded the Grand Decoration of Honor for 17 Services to the Republic of Austria for his role in liberating the Gunskirchen Lager concentration 18 camp; and

19       Whereas in 2005 Brigadier General Thayer received the University of Oregon Alumni Associ-20 ation Distinguished Alumni Award; and

21       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer always denied being a hero and spoke of his wartime service 22 with quiet dignity and rare humility; and

23       Whereas in 2017, reflecting on his wartime service, Brigadier General Thayer said, "Honor, duty 24 and service to our country is something we just did, we never questioned it," and he expressed the 25 hope that "in our pursuit of freedom, tolerance and democracy, our world will be a better place for 26 generations to come"; and

27       Whereas Brigadier General Thayer died on September 16, 2018; and

28       Whereas the Oregon Military Museum at Camp Withycombe is named in honor of Brigadier 29 General Thayer, a fitting tribute to a remarkable man; now, therefore,

30 Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

31       That we, the members of the Eightieth Legislative Assembly, celebrate the life and enduring 32 legacy of Brigadier General James Burdette Thayer, and we recognize and honor his duty, devotion 33 and service to his nation, state and community; and be it further

34       Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be presented to the family of Brigadier General
35 Thayer as an expression of our sympathy and condolences.
