

I'm going to find out who votes for such a obvious infringement on our constitutional rights and spread the info. to my friends. Please reconsider taking any action to promote this offense to our rights. Votes matter and if I express displeasure with the individuals who push this agenda to my friends your name will put a sour taste in their mouth when looking at their ballot.

Thanks again for your reconsideration of any favorable action on such a divisive bill.