

I don't have a gun in my home, but I disagree that this law will protect anyone. I grew up with guns and there was never a problem. This law only restricts law abiding gun owners. Criminals will still be able to use their guns, even use them to prey on those around them. Please reconsider this change to our freedoms Elaine McCoy