

This gun lockdown law is another attempt to punish law abiding citizens. It would make things impossible for people to protect themselves and loved ones if suddenly attacked by a criminal. We already have way too many gun laws! This law is another example of a law that for the most part is not necessary nor is it enforceable.

Sincerely Gary Madison