

I am astounded that the state of Oregon is considering HB4005. This bill will not further punish criminals who steal rather it will make law abiding citizens into criminals for being the victim of a crime.

If a criminal steals a knife from my kitchen should I be responsible for his crime? I think not and this bill should be voted down immediately.

Christian