

When I was 19 my country gave me an M14, expected me to keep it with me at all times and in good working order. I haven't shot at anybody in 53 years. I claim the right now to be able to defend myself and my loved ones.