Re: OPPOSITION to: [HJR 203]

[HJR 203] is yet another "Tax and Spend Scam." [HJR 203] punishes people who have worked hard, earned the fruits of their labors only to be statutorily "robbed" when they sell their real property for more than $500,000. Screw this idea.

Taxing real property owners to fund "Affordable Housing" and "Wrap-around Services" is not acceptable. The people who have made poor decisions throughout their miserable lives deserve the consequences they receive for their "life choices" and are not "entitled" to my money.

The absolute, despicable characters in the entire "Affordable Housing" and "Wrap-around Services" crap are those who benefit economically; the rankest of all Politicians, the Non-profit and or Public Benefit Corporations-whose salaries, benefits, health and retirement plans are predicated upon their material participation in preserving the "Homeless Industrial Complex." And [HJR 203] serves to be one of their funding sources.

If an individual and or corporations decide to actively donate or posthumously bequeath their own funds and or construct financial instruments; such as endowments to be applied to solving the "Homeless" problem, I'm sure they will be handsomely rewarded in Heaven.

I support voluntarily means, to actively donate or posthumously bequeath my personal funds and if possible create endowments to house the poor and downtrodden. But, I object vehemently to being compelled to do so via [HJR 203] and its' predicate communist theology.

...I almost forgot the most salient issue; there is already "Affordable Housing" everywhere you look in Oregon as well as in neighboring jurisdictions. If you can "Afford" to buy the house, the house is yours.

Government has transformed the term, "Government Subsidized Housing" into a more palatable form by using the bastardized term, "Affordable Housing."

[HJR 203] is an abomination and is yet another reason, for people of means to get the Hell out of Oregon or to "run for office" to "throw the bums out!"

VOTE "NO" ON: [HJR 203]!

Respectfully submitted,
