

We see what you're doing here and will hold all to account. Start acting with just a modicum of integrity and maybe this body of legislators can start working again for Oregonians, not the political activists. This super-majority you're enjoying won't last forever. There will be a reckoning, just like nationally in 2016 and again this November. Brace yourselves.

Sent from my iPhone