

Stop playing win at all costs politics at the expense of the average Oregon resident. We oppose this shameful, rigged process to shove a political agenda down our throats. At the very least, anything that costs the taxpayer money (and lots of it, as this legislation will very obviously do), should be put to a vote of the people.

Leah McDaniel
Bend, Oregon