

I am opposed to SJR201 because it is nothing more than a temper tantrum by the super majority because they are not getting their way.

The ability to deny quorum is the only option a minority has in a super majority situation and has been used by BOTH parties.

To remove this final option is to subject Oregonians to simple mob rule.

How quickly will the democrats be to try and reinstate this when they are in the minority?

William Brown
901 A street
Fossil, Oregon 97830
503-367-4677