

House Bill 4122

Sponsored by Representatives BONHAM, PILUSO, LEWIS; Representatives BARKER, LEIF, POST, Senators BOLES, FINDLEY, KNOPP (Pre-session filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Establishes procedure for charging aggravated version of certain assault and attempted murder offenses when defendant causes permanent physical injury to victim during commission of crime. Provides that if defendant is convicted of aggravated offense, court shall sentence defendant to 300 months' imprisonment. Authorizes court to impose lesser sentence in certain circumstances.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to permanent physical injury; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 161.005.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2020 Act shall be known and may be cited as Ezra's Law.

SECTION 2. (1)(a) An allegation that a defendant caused permanent physical injury to a victim during the commission of a crime described in paragraph (b) of this subsection may be pleaded in the accusatory instrument, and proved at trial as an element in aggravation of the crime, as provided in this section. The aggravated nature of the crime may be indicated by adding the words "resulting in permanent physical injury" to the title of the offense. The unaggravated crime shall be considered a lesser included offense.

(b) This section applies to the following crimes committed intentionally or knowingly by a person at least 18 years of age:

(A) Assault in the first degree;

(B) Assault in the second degree;

(C) Attempted murder; or

(D) Attempted aggravated murder.

(2)(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 161.605, and except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, if a defendant is convicted of a crime described in subsection (1)(b) of this section having as an element that the defendant caused permanent physical injury to the victim during the commission of the crime, the court shall impose as a sentence a term of imprisonment of 300 months.

(b) A defendant sentenced under this subsection is not, during the service of the term of imprisonment, eligible for release on post-prison supervision, work release or any form of temporary leave from custody, or any reduction in the imposed sentence under ORS 421.121 or any other statute.

(3)(a) If, at the time of commission of the offense, the defendant has not previously been sentenced under this section, the court may impose a sentence of less than 300 months of imprisonment if the court expressly finds significant mitigating circumstances justifying the lesser sentence, and sets forth those circumstances on the record at sentencing.

(b) If the court sentences a defendant to a term of less than 300 months of imprisonment

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
