

welcome

HOLISTIC REVIEW

The University of Oregon conducts a “holistic review” for Freshman applicants.

Holistic review is a comprehensive process in which we review all aspects of your application materials.

WE CONSIDER

GPA

Grade Trend

Academic Courses, Course Rigor

Senior Schedule

Activities, Work, Volunteering

ACT or SAT Scores (optional)

Personal Statement, Other Essays

PERSONAL FACTORS

Individual experiences

Involvement

UO ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

English 4 years

Mathematics 3 years

Science 3 years

Social Studies 3 years

Second Language 2 years

COMMON BARRIERS TO ACCESSING HIGHER EDUCATION

-
- Family instability
 - Experiencing homelessness
 - Food insecurity
 - Lack of internet, study space, transportation
 - Too many responsibilities at home
 - Language barriers

- Lack of support in the home if first generation
- Citizenship status- fear of disclosing undocumented status
- Enrollment fees
- Standardized testing

SUPPORT FROM UO ADMISSIONS

Opportunities

6th-9th Graders

Hosted at schools/community centers

Connections

9th-12th Graders

Hosted on campus

Indigenous Pre-College Academy (IPCA)

9th-12th Graders

Hosted on campus

Duck Express Application Workshops

12th Graders

Hosted at high schools

Embracing the Future

Admitted 12th Graders

On campus

Work with community-based organizations

Multicultural and regional admissions recruiters

Removing barriers from our application process

Virtual workshops throughout the year

2010-2011:

16%

UO students identified as students of color

2021-2022:

35%

UO students identified as students of color

19%

First generation students

23%

Pell eligible students

(Office of Institutional Research, University of Oregon, 2022)

QUESTIONS?

Works Cited

National Association for College Admissions Counseling (2022). DEI Challenges In The College Admission Counseling Profession. <https://www.nacacnet.org/news--publications/Research/dei-challenges-in-college-admissions/>

Office of Institutional Research, University of Oregon (2022). <https://ir.uoregon.edu/>