To whom it may concern;

There are many issues that I might like to address. This is a very awkward mode to express ideas and challenges. So I am going to keep it simply to urge forming another meeting as soon as possible, with a zoom option for attendance. I am aware there was one way for online attendance, and it was very inconvenient. Hopping onto a zoom meeting open to all students would be very appropriate. I am an online only student. I am homeless, and rely on hopping from town-to-town to find work. Besides there being many other students only online. I have one classmate I am aware of in a correctional facility. Do they have access to this meeting? What are your thoughts on inclusion? I see narrow-minded logistics here. I see making more barriers to those who are learning English, and anyone struggling with finances.

Any other concerns I might have will need to wait until I see myself as heard.

Sincerely,
Crystal Starrock
