

OREGON LEGAL AID

A critical resource for Oregonians suffering during the COVID-19 Pandemic and economic crisis

Legal Aid Has Responded to the Emergency By:

- Immediately providing extensive information to the public about important changes in landlord/tenant, public benefits, and employment law related to COVID-19 crisis.
- Continuing to provide critical legal representation in domestic violence cases at a time when domestic violence crisis calls have increased.
- Rapidly shifting service delivery model to provide legal services remotely—all offices across the state are open to serve clients by phone and email.
- Expanding statewide hotline to help more clients with legal issues related to unemployment insurance, medical needs, and other public benefits.
- Advocating for health and safety for vulnerable Oregonians including farmworkers and homeless individuals.

In 2019, 112 legal aid attorneys helped nearly 39,000 poor and elderly Oregonians who had nowhere else to turn for legal help.

Civil legal aid in Oregon ensures fairness in the justice system. It provides essential services to low-income and vulnerable Oregonians who are faced with legal emergencies.

Legal Aid Provides:

- Free civil legal representation to low-income and elderly Oregonians.
- Brochures, court forms, and self-help materials to help people navigate our justice system
- A website with accessible legal information available to all Oregonians.
- Resources to help stabilize families and prevent a further slide into poverty.

Legal aid serves all 36 Oregon Counties with offices in 17 Oregon Communities.

Offices are located in Multnomah County (Portland and East County), St. Helen's, Hillsboro, McMinnville, Woodburn, Albany, Salem, Newport, Eugene, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Coos Bay, Medford, Bend, Klamath Falls, Ontario, and Pendleton. Go to www.oregonlawhelp.org for a directory of legal aid offices in your community, and for client-facing legal information on a variety of topics.

New Statewide Eviction Moratorium
