BACKGROUND:

Since 1945, Oregon has been one of only five states in the nation to offer a state home loan to veterans, which is distinct from the federal VA Home Loan Guaranty and operated by the Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs (ODVA). The ODVA home loan program has lent Oregonians approximately $8 billion in low-interest home loans to more than 334,000 veterans. ODVA conducted a comprehensive review of statutes governing home and farm loans to veterans in 2019, and refined its authority consistent with current practices via Senate Bill 36. ODVA's home loan program is funded by federal Qualified Veterans' Mortgage Bonds which do not allow for the refinancing of mortgages at this time.
