

Congressional Redistricting Deadlines Contained in SB 259-1 and -2 (2021)

Initial Deadlines:

September 27, 2021 – Deadline for Legislature to pass Congressional reapportionment plan. (Page 2, Lines 29-30)

October 25, 2021 – Deadline for elector to file petition in Marion County Circuit Court challenging the Legislature’s plan or requesting reapportionment if none was passed by Legislature. (Page 2, Lines 25-28)

November 1, 2021 – Deadline for elector to intervene in petition. (Page 3, lines 6-8)

Path 1: Legislature Adopted Plan and Affirmed Without Change by Special Judicial Panel

November 15, 2021 – Deadline for special judicial panel to dismiss all challenges to Legislature’s adopted reapportionment plan if panel determines no changes are required. (Page 5, lines 3-5)

November 22, 2021 – Deadline for party to appeal a dismissal of all challenges to Legislature’s adopted reapportionment plan by the special judicial panel to the Supreme Court. (Page 5, lines 6-8)

December 6, 2021 – Deadline for Supreme Court to approve Legislature’s adopted reapportionment plan that was affirmed without change by special judicial panel. (Page 6, lines 23-25)

December 20, 2021 – Deadline for Supreme Court to require special judicial panel to amend or substitute Legislature’s adopted or amended reapportionment plan. (Page 6, lines 26-29)

January 17, 2022 – Deadline for special judicial panel to make required changes and submit revised reapportionment plan to Supreme court. (page 6, line 30 – page 7, line 2)

February 7, 2022 – Deadline for Supreme Court to approve final reapportionment plan. (Page 7, lines 3-5)

Path 2: Legislature Failed to Adopt Plan or Special Judicial Panel Accepts Challenge to Legislature Adopted Plan

November 15, 2021 – Deadline for special judicial panel to adopt reapportionment plan or make changes to Legislature’s adopted reapportionment plan. (Page 5, lines 9 -13)

November 22, 2021 – Deadline for party to file appeal of reapportionment plan adopted or changed by special judicial panel. (Page 14-16)

December 6, 2021 – Deadline for Supreme Court to approve reapportionment plan adopted or changed by unanimous special judicial panel if Supreme Court determines no additional changes are needed. (Page 7, lines 8-11)

December 20, 2021 – Deadline for Supreme Court to approve reapportionment plan adopted or changed by non-unanimous special judicial panel or require additional changes to be made to unanimous or non-unanimous plan. (Page 7, lines 12-18)

January 17, 2022 – Deadline for special judicial panel to make required additional changes and submit revised reapportionment plan. (Page 7, lines 19-21)

February 7, 2022 – Deadline for Supreme Court to approve final reapportionment plan. (Page 7, lines 22-24)