BACKGROUND:

ORS 163.305 defines “mentally defective” as a person who suffers from a qualifying mental disorder that renders the person incapable of appraising the nature of the conduct of the person. Under Oregon criminal statutes relating to sexual offenses, a person is considered incapable of consenting to a sexual act if the person is mentally defective as defined.

Senate Bill 566 A removes the term mentally defective and instead states that a person is incapable of consent if the person is incapable of appraising the nature of their conduct and provides specific factors for the trier of fact to consider in evaluating a person's ability to appraise the nature of their conduct.
