BACKGROUND:

The Federal Fair Housing Act (1968) prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, and financing of dwellings, and in other housing-related transactions, based on a person's race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or physical or mental disability. It prohibits housing providers from discriminating against any person in the provision of services and facilities of a rental or dwelling.

House Bill 2736 A requires landlords to notify their tenants about state and federal discrimination laws and how tenants may file discrimination complaints. Landlords of buildings with 11 or more residential dwelling units will be required to prominently post notices in common areas. The Bureau of Labor and Industries must prescribe the form of the notice by November 15, 2021. Tenant notice requirements apply to new rental agreements on or after January 1, 2022; for tenancies existing on January 1, 2022, requirements apply on February 1, 2022. Common area notices must be posted by February 1, 2022.
