BACKGROUND:

On January 29, 1921, Gladys Moat Pate was born in England to Ralph and Minnie Moat and on January 29, 2021, she celebrated her 100th birthday in Salem, Oregon.

In 1943, Gladys Pate met and married Roy Almer Vandrick, a Canadian soldier, and immigrated to Canada in Chilliwack, British Columbia. Later, Gladys and Roy immigrated to the United States with their children Geoffrey and Vicki. In November 1971, Gladys Pate married Louis Franklin Pate, the love of her life, and they spent 20 happy years together until his death in 1991. Gladys Pate takes great pride in her family, which includes her son, Geoffrey; daughter-in-law, Jacqueline; stepdaughter, Bonnie; stepsons, Wesley and John; grandchildren, Tanya, Scott, Tony, Senta and B.J.; stepgrandchildren, Ryan and Jenna; and many wonderful nieces and nephews in Great Britain and Canada.

During the past century, Gladys Pate has made dear friends all over the world and experienced many ups and downs, but through it all she has maintained a sense of humor while keeping calm and carrying on.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 14 extends congratulations and best wishes to Gladys Moat Pate on the remarkable milestone of her centennial birthday.
