WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Requires deposit to Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC) by a retail sales agent equal average daily gross receipts from retail sales of distilled liquor by agent. Requires agents make deposits and report average daily gross receipts to OLCC on a monthly basis.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Provisions of measure

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

Requires agents make deposits and report average daily gross receipts to OLCC on a monthly basis.

BACKGROUND:

ORS 471.805 specifies that moneys from the retail sale of distilled liquor that are being held by a retail sales agent or a distillery retail outlet agent are not subject to the deposit requirements defined in ORS 295.001 to 295.108 if the agent has on deposit with the Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC) an amount equaling or exceeding an amount the OLCC, in its discretion, deems to be reasonable and sufficient and to be not less than the average daily gross receipts from retail sales of distilled liquor by the agent.

House Bill 3344 A requires the amount of the deposit to the OLCC by a retail sales agent equal the average daily gross receipts from the retail sales of distilled liquor by the agent, and requires agents to make deposits to the OLCC and report average daily gross receipts to the OLCC on a monthly basis.
