Measure Description:

Defines the alternative education program and specifies requirements in the delivery of the program. Takes effect on July 1, 2021.

Revenue Impact: No change in the formula revenue available for distribution to school districts and education service districts

Impact Explanation:

One of the requirements in the bill is an enhanced payment to alternative education programs by school districts in which the programs are located. However, this requirement does not change the formula revenue available for distribution to school districts and education service districts in a given school year.
