2 “SECTION 1. ORS 419C.150 is amended to read:

3 “419C.150. (1) Except as otherwise provided in [subsection (3) of] this section, a youth may be
4 held in detention under this section and ORS 419C.145, 419C.153 and 419C.156 for a maximum of 28
5 days except for good cause shown prior to the expiration of the 28-day period. If good cause for 6 continued detention is shown, the period of detention may be extended for no more than an addi-
7 tional 28 days unless the adjudication is continued with the express consent of the youth.

8 “(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to a youth alleged to be within the jurisdiction
9 of the juvenile court for having committed an act that would be murder, attempted murder, con-
10 spiracy to commit murder or treason if committed by an adult and if proof of the act is evident or 11 the presumption strong that the youth committed the act. The juvenile court may conduct such 12 hearing as the court considers necessary to determine whether the proof is evident or the 13 presumption strong.

14 “(3)(a) The time limits described in subsection (1) of this section do not apply if:

15 “(A) The court has stayed the proceedings on the petition alleging jurisdiction under ORS
16 419C.005 pursuant to ORS 419C.378;

17 “(B) The court has not entered an order determining the youth’s fitness to proceed pursuant to 18 a motion made under ORS 419C.378 or the motion has not otherwise been resolved; and

19 “(C) The court holds the review hearings required by ORS 419C.153 and determines that de-
20 tention of the youth under ORS 419C.145 should continue.

21 “(b)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the detention of the youth
22 whose detention has been continued under paragraph (a) of this subsection may be extended for no
23 more than 28 days upon entry of an order determining the youth’s fitness to proceed pursuant to a
24 motion made under ORS 419C.378 or upon other resolution of the motion, and if the court holds the 25 review hearings required by ORS 419C.153 and determines that detention of the youth under ORS
26 419C.145 should continue.

27 “(B) The detention of the youth may be extended for more than 28 days under this paragraph
28 if expressly agreed to by the youth, and if the court holds the review hearings required by ORS
29 419C.153 and determines that detention of the youth under ORS 419C.145 should continue.

30 “(4)(a) The time limits described in subsection (1) of this section do not apply if:

31 “(A) The state has filed a motion requesting waiver under ORS 419C.349;

32 “(B) The motion has not been resolved; and

33 “(C) The court holds the review hearings required by ORS 419C.153 and determines that 34 detention of the youth should continue.

35 “(b)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the detention of the

1 youth whose detention has been continued under paragraph (a) of this subsection may be
2 extended for no more than 28 days upon entry of an order denying a motion for waiver
3 hearing or an order denying waiver, and if the court holds the review hearings required by 4 ORS 419C.153 and determines that detention of the youth should continue.

5 “(B) The detention of the youth may be extended for more than 28 days under this par-
6 agraph if expressly agreed to by the youth, and if the court holds the review hearings re-
7 quired by ORS 419C.153 and determines that detention of the youth should continue.

8 “SECTION 2. ORS 419C.153 is amended to read:

9 “419C.153. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, any youth ordered de-
10 tained under ORS 419C.145, 419C.150 and 419C.156 shall have a review hearing at least every 10
11 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and judicial holidays. At the review hearing the court shall de-
12 termine whether sufficient cause exists to require continued detention of the youth. In addition, the 13 court may review and may confirm, revoke or modify any order for the detention or release of the 14 youth under this section or ORS 419C.109, 419C.136, 419C.139, 419C.145, 419C.150 or 419C.156 and,
15 in the event that the youth is alleged to have committed an offense which if committed by an adult
16 would be a misdemeanor or Class C felony, may do so ex parte. Release of a youth may not be re-
17 voked, however, except upon a finding that the youth may be detained under this section or ORS
18 419C.145, 419C.150 and 419C.156, and after a hearing is held in accordance with ORS 419C.109,
19 419C.136 and 419C.139. [If the victim requests, the district attorney or juvenile department shall notify
20 the victim of the review hearing.]

21 “(2)(a) Any youth detained under ORS 419C.145, 419C.150 and 419C.156 in whose case the
22 state has filed a request for a waiver hearing under ORS 419C.349 (1) shall have a review
23 hearing every 30 days at which:

24 “(A) The court shall require the parties to describe the efforts made toward expeditious
25 case resolution, considering public safety and the youth’s continued placement in detention
26 as paramount concerns, and the court shall identify opportunities for judicial intervention
27 to assist the parties with resolution of any outstanding issues; and

28 “(B) The court may, upon the request of the youth or at the discretion of the court, de-
29 termine whether sufficient cause exists to require continued detention of the youth. In ad-
30 dition, the court may review and may confirm, revoke or modify any order for the detention
31 or release of the youth under this subsection or ORS 419C.109, 419C.136, 419C.139, 419C.145,
32 419C.150 or 419C.156. Release of a youth may not be revoked, however, except upon a finding 33 that the youth may be detained under this section or ORS 419C.145, 419C.150 or 419C.156, and 34 after a hearing is held in accordance with ORS 419C.109, 419C.136 and 419C.139.

35 “(b) Upon filing with the court of a written waiver signed by the youth and the youth’s
36 counsel, the court may waive the youth’s presence at a review hearing under this subsection.

37 “(3) If a youth intends to request release at a review hearing under subsection (1) or (2)
38 of this section, the youth’s counsel must notify the district attorney of the youth’s intent
39 to request release at least five days prior to the date of the review hearing.

40 “(4) If a victim requests, the district attorney or juvenile department shall notify the 41 victim of a review hearing under subsection (1) or (2) of this section.”.
