A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to redistricting; and declaring an emergency.

3 Whereas Oregon bases both state legislative reapportionment plans and congressional reappor-
4 tionment plans on P.L. 94-171 redistricting data from the United States Census Bureau ("census re-5 districting data"); and

6 Whereas the COVID-19 pandemic prevented the United States Census Bureau from meeting its 7 requirement under federal law to provide census redistricting data to Oregon by March 31, 2021; 8 and

9 Whereas the United States Census Bureau has publicly stated that it will provide final census 10 redistricting data to Oregon in a legacy format by "mid-to-late August 2021"; and

11 Whereas the anticipated August 2021 delivery date of census redistricting data would make it
12 impossible for the Legislative Assembly to enact either a state legislative reapportionment plan
13 based on the census redistricting data by the July 1, 2021, deadline set forth in Article IV, section
14 6, of the Oregon Constitution, or a congressional reapportionment plan based on the census redis-15 tricting data by the July 1, 2021, deadline set forth in ORS 188.125; and 16 Whereas the Legislative Assembly petitioned the Oregon Supreme Court both to extend the 17 deadline for state legislative reapportionment set forth in Article IV, section 6, of the Oregon Con-18 stitution, and to permit the Legislative Assembly to conduct state legislative reapportionment during 19 a special session; and

20 Whereas the Oregon Supreme Court granted the petition from the Legislative Assembly and 21 established a deadline of September 27, 2021, for the Legislative Assembly to enact a state legisla-22 tive reapportionment plan; and

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 Whereas the timeline for enactment and judicial review of a 2021 state legislative reapportionment plan that was established by the Oregon Supreme Court will permit the 2022 primary election 2 and the 2022 general election to take place on their regularly scheduled dates; and

3 Whereas the Legislative Assembly has a long history of having the same legislative committees 4 be responsible for enacting both a state legislative reapportionment plan and a congressional reapportionment plan; and

5 Whereas the Legislative Assembly intends to convene a special session to enact both a state
6 legislative reapportionment plan and a congressional reapportionment plan before the September 27, 7 2021, deadline for enacting a state legislative reapportionment plan established by the Oregon Supreme Court; now, therefore,

8 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

9 SECTION 1. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 188.125, this section provides the exclusive method 10 for an elector to file a petition with a circuit court on or before December 31, 2022, to:

11 (a) Challenge a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan; or 12 (b) Request a reapportionment of congressional districts.

13 (2) An elector may file a petition in Marion County Circuit Court on or before October 14 12, 2021, to:

15 (a) Challenge a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan; or

16 (b) Request a reapportionment of congressional districts if:

17 (A) The Legislative Assembly failed to pass a reapportionment of congressional districts 18 by September 27, 2021; or

19 (B) The Governor vetoed the reapportionment of congressional districts passed by the 20 Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Assembly did not override the veto.

21 (3) The Secretary of State shall serve as respondent in any petition filed under subsection 22 (2) of this section.

23 (4) An elector may file a petition in Marion County Circuit Court on or before October 24 15, 2021, to intervene in a petition filed under subsection (2) of this section.

25 (5)(a) A petition filed under subsection (2) or (4) of this section may include any materials 26 from the legislative record relating to congressional reapportionment plans.

27 (b) A petition filed under subsection (2) of this section must include:

28 (A) The legislatively adopted reapportionment plan that is being challenged and an ex-29 planation of the factual and legal defects in the plan.

30 (B) If no legislatively adopted reapportionment plan was passed, the petitioner's proposed 31 reapportionment plan and an explanation of how the plan complies with all applicable stat-
32 utes and the United States and Oregon Constitutions.

33 (c) A petition to intervene filed under subsection (4) of this section must include an ex-34 planation of the factual and legal defects with assertions made in a petition filed under sub-35 section (2) of this section.

36 (6) On September 28, 2021, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall appoint a special 37 judicial panel. The panel shall consist of one state circuit court judge, senior judge or judge 38 who is serving as a judge pro tempore under ORS 238.535 (1)(c) from each congressional 39 district in this state. The Chief Justice shall also select one of the appointed judges to preside 40 over the special judicial panel and to make all rulings on procedural and evidentiary matters 41 before the panel.

42 (7) Jurisdiction is vested in the special judicial panel described in subsection (6) of this

1 section to decide any petitions filed under subsections (2) and (4) of this section. The panel 2 may:

3 (a) Consolidate some or all petitions filed under subsections (2) and (4) of this section.

4 (b) Allow amicus curiae to file briefs and participate in oral arguments.

5 (c) Request that the Chief Justice appoint a special master to receive evidence and to 6 prepare recommended findings of fact. Upon receiving such a request from the special ju-7 dicial panel, the Chief Justice shall appoint a special master. A special master appointed by 8 the Chief Justice under this paragraph must be a state circuit court judge, senior judge or 9 judge who is serving as a judge pro tempore under ORS 238.535 (1)(c).

10 (8) The special judicial panel shall employ the following standards in deciding upon a re-11 apportionment plan:

12 (a) For a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan, the panel must affirm the plan if 13 the plan complies with all applicable statutes and the United States and Oregon Consti-14 tutions. If the panel finds that the legislatively adopted reapportionment plan does not com-15 ply with applicable statutes or the United States or Oregon Constitution, the panel may 16 create its own reapportionment plan. A reapportionment plan adopted by the panel under 17 this paragraph must comply with all applicable statutes and the United States and Oregon
18 Constitutions.

19 (b) If no legislatively adopted reapportionment plan was passed, the panel must consider 20 all plans submitted by petitioners and intervenors but may create its own reapportionment 21 plan. A reapportionment plan adopted by the panel under this paragraph must comply with 22 all applicable statutes and the United States and Oregon Constitutions.

23 (9)(a) On or before October 22, 2021, the special judicial panel shall set a schedule to re-24 ceive written memoranda and supporting evidence in support of or in opposition to any pe-25 titions filed under subsection (2) of this section and a date to hear oral arguments on the 26 petitions.

27 (b) The special judicial panel shall decide whether to dismiss a petition filed under sub-28 section (2) of this section that challenges a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan by 29 November 24, 2021.

30 (c) If the panel dismisses the petition under this subsection, a party to the action may 31 appeal the decision by filing a notice of appeal with the Supreme Court on or before No-32 vember 29, 2021.

33 (10)(a) The special judicial panel shall decide all other petitions filed under subsection (2) 34 of this section, including petitions challenging a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan 35 that the panel does not dismiss under subsection (9)(a) of this section, by November 24, 2021.

36 (b) A party to the action may appeal a decision reached under this subsection by filing 37 a notice of appeal with the Supreme Court on or before November 29, 2021.

38 (11) The Supreme Court shall:

39 (a) On or before November 30, 2021, set a schedule to receive written memoranda and a 40 date to hear oral arguments, if any, on any appeal brought under subsection (9) or (10) of this 41 section;

42 (b) Hear any appeal brought under subsection (9) or (10) of this section; and

43 (c) Employ the following standards in deciding upon a reapportionment plan affirmed or 44 adopted by the special judicial panel:

45 (A) For a legislatively adopted reapportionment plan, the Supreme Court must affirm the

1 plan if the plan complies with all applicable statutes and the United States and Oregon Con-
2 stitutions. If the court finds that the legislatively adopted reapportionment plan does not 3 comply with applicable statutes or the United States or Oregon Constitution, the court may 4 create its own reapportionment plan. A reapportionment plan adopted by the Supreme Court 5 under this subparagraph must comply with all applicable statutes and the United States and 6 Oregon Constitutions.

7 (B) For a reapportionment plan that was adopted unanimously by the special judicial 8 panel, the Supreme Court must affirm the plan if the plan complies with all applicable stat-
9 utes and the United States and Oregon Constitutions. If the court finds that the unanimously 10 adopted reapportionment plan does not comply with applicable statutes or the United States
11 or Oregon Constitution, the court may create its own reapportionment plan. A reapportion-12 ment plan adopted by the Supreme Court under this subparagraph must comply with all ap-13 plicable statutes and the United States and Oregon Constitutions.

14 (C) For a reapportionment plan that was created or adopted by the special judicial panel 15 by a less than unanimous decision, the Supreme Court may, in its discretion, try the cause 16 anew upon the record. This review must be based on the record created by the special judi-17 cial panel, but the Supreme Court may make its own determinations of law or underlying 18 findings of fact. After conducting its review, the Supreme Court may affirm the panel's re-19 apportionment plan, amend the panel's reapportionment plan or adopt a new reapportion-20 ment plan. A reapportionment plan decided upon by the Supreme Court under this 21 subparagraph must comply with all applicable statutes and the United States and Oregon
22 Constitutions.

23 (12) If a party to an action files a notice of appeal with the Supreme Court under sub-
24 section (9) of this section:

25 (a) The Supreme Court shall decide whether to approve the legislatively adopted reap-26 portionment plan without any changes by January 3, 2022.

27 (b) If the Supreme Court determines that the legislatively adopted reapportionment plan 28 must be amended or substituted, by January 3, 2022, the court shall direct the special judicial 29 panel to make such changes.

30 (c) The special judicial panel shall make any required changes and submit a revised re-
31 apportionment plan to the Supreme Court by January 24, 2022.

32 (d) The Supreme Court shall review the reapportionment plan revised by the special ju-
33 dicial panel and approve a final reapportionment plan by February 7, 2022.

34 (13) If a party to an action files a notice of appeal with the Supreme Court under sub-
35 section (10) of this section:

36 (a) The Supreme Court shall decide whether to approve a legislatively adopted reappor-37 tionment plan or a reapportionment plan that was unanimously adopted by the special judi-38 cial panel without any changes by January 3, 2022.

39 (b) The Supreme Court shall decide whether to approve a less than unanimous decision 40 of the special judicial panel without any changes by January 3, 2022.

41 (c) If the Supreme Court determines that changes are required for a reapportionment 42 plan approved by the special judicial panel, by January 3, 2022, the Supreme Court shall direct 43 the panel to make such changes.

44 (d) The special judicial panel shall make any required changes and submit a revised re-
45 apportionment plan to the Supreme Court by January 24, 2022.

1 (e) The Supreme Court shall review the reapportionment plan revised by the special ju-
2 dicial panel and approve a final reapportionment plan by February 7, 2022.

3 (14) A final reapportionment plan resulting from a petition filed under subsection (2) or
