33 subsection at the time of sentencing in person or through the prosecuting attorney.

42 and the conditions of the person’s release.

43 “(7) Failure to abide by all general and (7) special conditions of probation may result in arrest,

45 tions in accordance with rules adopted under ORS 137.595.

1 “(8) The court may order that probation be supervised by the court. If the court orders that

12 the probationer of the right to file an objection and have a hearing as described in subpara-
13 graph (A) of this paragraph. The notice requirement may be satisfied by providing the 14 probationer with a copy of a form developed in accordance with rules adopted under ORS
15 137.595 (2)(b) that describes the right to a hearing. If the district attorney or probationer:

16 “(A) Files an objection to the proposed modification less than five judicial days after the pro-
17 posed modification was filed, the court shall schedule a hearing no later than 10 judicial days after 18 the proposed modification was filed, unless the court finds good cause to schedule a hearing at a 19 later time.

20 “(B) Does not file an objection to the proposed modification less than five judicial days after the 21 proposed modification was filed, the proposed modification becomes effective five judicial days after 22 the proposed modification was filed.

23 “(10) A court may not order revocation of probation as a result of the probationer’s failure to 24 pay restitution unless the court determines from the totality of the circumstances that the purposes
25 of the probation are not being served.

26 “(11) It is not a cause for revocation of probation that the probationer failed to apply for or 27 accept employment at any workplace where there is a labor dispute in progress. As used in this 28 subsection, ‘labor dispute’ has the meaning for that term provided in ORS 662.010.

29 “(12)(a) If the court determines that a defendant has violated the terms of probation, the court

32 of the conditions of the defendant’s probation. The fees imposed under this subsection become part 33 of the judgment and may be collected in the same manner as a fine.

34 “(b) Probation violation fees collected under this subsection in the circuit court shall be depos-
35 ited by the clerk of the court in the General Fund. Extradition cost fees collected in the circuit
36 court under this subsection shall be deposited by the clerk of the court in the Arrest and Return
37 Account established by ORS 133.865. Fees collected in a justice court under this subsection shall 38 be paid to the county treasurer. Fees collected in a municipal court under this subsection shall be 39 paid to the city treasurer.

40 “(13) As used in this section, ‘attends,’ ‘institution of higher education,’ ‘works’ and ‘carries on 41 a vocation’ have the meanings given those terms in ORS 163A.005.”.
