

There are many reasons to pass this bill and I support all of them. With as risky as it is to ride these days, we need a way to get out of situations and have a bit of space to comfortably get through traffic without overheating etc. many states have this law and it doesn't affect the amount of accidents or fatalities of motorcyclists.