

I beg you to please just look at the facts when considering this bill. Look at the real live example of the state of California. Look into the studies and don't be driven by unwarranted fears