

As a dental hygienist in Oregon who serves those with limited access to dental care, I understand the need for a State Dental Director position. As much as I value a medical director, they often do not understand the oral health needs of the community and how oral health affects an individual. We need a State Dental Director that can identify community oral health needs and help Oregon elevate the oral health of the state. Thank you.