

OFRI should be eliminated because it favors the timber industry, rather than promoting preservation of old growth, using scientific, ecologically sound information and principals to inform the public regarding sound forest management.