

I strongly support this Bill. Revenue expended for active transportation improvements offer the best return on overall investment when external factors, such as environmental degradation from inaction on climate, are factored in.