

I support this bill, COVID has fundamentally changed our access to work and having the option to work remotely will benefit more people.