

I support SB 574 and you should to. the data according to the state of California traffic safety division is in favor of this action as well. Since we are heading to a more green society this will allow myself and my community to do our part in carbon reduction. I also know this will reduce the number of rider accidents on the road.