

HB 2674 has morphed too much with the amendment. From an impact study to a labyrinth of taxes.
The taxes, if enacted into law, will increase the cost of construction/services which will be passed on to the end user.
In effect this is a hidden tax.
The end consumer, including renters, homeowners, and in many cases, those that can least afford to pay more, will be impacted.