

I oppose the amendments HB2674. It is important to understand how operating a business works. These businesses are already working to help lower carbon emissions through sustainable practices-investing in newer equipment, the trees sequester carbon and the soils from agriculture sequester carbon.

The off-road equipment equipment used in farming, logging, construction, and even fire fighting shouldn't be taxed on top of CAT and corporate tax or income tax.