

our landlord just sold this complex but before she did steadily emailed us, harassed us, called and texted saying she couldn't wait until the pandemic was over so she could evict us. she still emails us telling us how horrible we are. we both lost our very good jobs - i still haven't received unemployment. worse , my personal life is taking a hard right turn and now i can't even drive anywhere let alone pay rent. in june i'll be homeless. i have nothing already. but when june rolls around.....