

This is a powerful disincentive for rental property in the State of Oregon. People respond to incentives.

These moratoriums have tied the hands of land owners. They have created loopholes for tenants not even impacted by COVID to take advantage of land owners. These extended moratoriums are going to be the death of private landlords electing to offer affordable housing homes.