

I am writing in support of this resolution. Prohibiting the exclusion of tribal regalia and other objects of cultural significance is the right thing to do in Oregon and we should follow the state of Washington where a similar bill (SB 6607) was passed last February.