

This bill as written makes it extremely difficult for housing providers to manage property and continue to provide housing to the public.
As property owners trying to retire and live on rental income this bill if passed would put significant risk into our ability to survive.