

The Covid Shut-downs have already destroyed too much of Oregon's economy. The allegations and assumptions surrounding controls on carbon emissions are poorly supported. Better to study how to restore our economy. Develop incentives to promote innovations in the marketplace that deal with the elements of this bill. Even better, study 'fugitive emissions' from wildfires. Now, that's real pollution! Clean that up!