

Living within mere blocks of the Willamette River I frequently see the incredibly large waves produced by a single boat tearing down the waterway. This is damaging to private docks, but most importantly to the wildlife that live in the river and near its banks. Please put a stop to the horsepower damage that occurs on an hourly basis at times.