

I oppose SB618, any bill supporting reparations for black americans who were never slaves, only causes further division in our country. Tax paying citizens who are already taxed so heavily they cannot breathe, should not have to bear the price of such absurdity. We are all Americans, none of us own slaves or have been slaves for many generations. Stop the division. Vote no, and Oppose.