

Farmers and ranchers cannot afford this. You've already raised gas prices, you're trying to increase minimum wage, you've cut off their water for irrigation, now this! What are you trying to do to our state and country? Make things worse in every possible way for everyone? You need to search your souls and ask yourselves WHY?