

I strongly oppose this bill! Many of us have boats just barely over the weight and purchased them to be able to tow! You would force owners who spent hard earned money to not be able to enjoy time with their family. The weight limit should be much higher!