

Please work to support SB683. This law can help students and parents become more aware of racial discrimination and learn skills that will help them develop a positive attitude toward equity, diversity, and inclusion.