

As a citizen of Oregon, a state that was founded on racist principles, I am thrilled to see this bill. There is a great need to see strong anti-racist education for school children. I congratulate the people who recognized this need and are doing long overdue work to deal with it. As a mother and grandmother of children who were in the public school system, I want to see this bill passed and implemented.