

It is up to you to end abuse in the fields. I hope that you recognize the incredible power that a bill like this would have. I hope that you also follow through with robust rulemaking to ensure that this not only passes but is enforced.