

I fully support Senate Bill 683. Racism is tearing the this country apart. Racism generally stems from a lack of familiarity and understanding of other cultures, religions, and races, and ethnicities. Education is crucial to removing bias against people who are different from us different from us. I fully support Senate Bill 683.