

I am writing today to wholeheartedly support overtime for farm workers. They are the absolute backbone of our society, and due to racist laws, have been cheated out of fair pay for decades. This is absolutely unacceptable and must be amended today. I stand with farm workers today and forever and insist that this bill be passed to guarantee them overtime.