

This bill is so full of flaws and impossibilities that it's clearly been written in fear, absent knowledge & understanding of the practical use of home self defense. It also creates so many possibilities that law abiding citizens be charges with crimes they didn't commit.