

This bill is absolutely illogical. In no way should a person be held liable for the crimes committed by another. If my car is stolen I am not liable for the damage done by the thief.

The condition of firearms storage in the is strictly a personal choice. You have no right to dictate what people do in their homes.

Every lock on earth can be defeated with the right tool and time.