

Why on earth are you proposing tax payers pay for school children's eye exams? We're already paying for the schools through our property taxes, whether we have kids or not. Enough is enough, take care of what really needs your attention; ending these lockdowns, open Oregon.